

When Disaster Threatens to Strike Twice

How to Protect Yourself and Others from Financial Exploitation after a Disaster

FREE WORKSHOP

Designed for New Jersey residents of all ages, this lively 90-minute workshop, delivered by professional instructors, will teach you:

- The types of exploitation that occur in the wake of a disaster and the most effective ways to respond.
- How to recognize potentially unscrupulous contractors and find a reputable professional to repair a damaged home.
- Simple precautions to help you protect property and assets.

Come learn where to report financial exploitation and how to get help when someone is victimized.

Each participant will receive a handbook full of valuable information and resources

Wednesday, April 29, 2015

Saint Andrews by the Sea
1:30 a.m. - 3:00 p.m.

Contact Kristen Mittleman to register:
609-645-7700 Ext. 4381 or
km11@njlincs.net