Director's report:

Summer camp went well, but the board and Director Thomas have decided the need to have full day camp is needed. He has been in touch with cultural arts and they are going to work together to get this done for next year.

Wrestling program, the city has gotten the donation of the mats from ACHS , that is appreciated. They will go over to the VECC. They have a couple of men that started the program last year that are excited to continue this year

The Challenge Atlantic City- June 29, 2014. That was a triathlon that took place, and it was discussed prior that they would FORFEIT their deposit ( Mr. Stephen Delmonte) due to the complaints the city offices received the following work day (Monday) regarding trash being left in the boardwalk trash containers and piles remaining piled by the street end on Newport Ave. Director Thomas made the board aware that a letter was sent out by him to Mr. DelMonte to that matter.

Board went into executive session- 7:00-pm coaching matter, returned on the record at 7:35pm.

Motion was made to adjourn the meeting by Bart beck ( on the phone ) and John Gallagher.
